mspector of the department what he sould do in the way of operating a machine. Inspector Williams was elected as the proper subject to be shown, and Diamond proceeded to show him. All went well for a time, a brief time though it was, and the candidate suided the motor cycle around, the sweeping driveway of the capitol grounds, out to Captical avenue, and then with the best of intentions, turned into the east driveway of the grounds again. Williams had a seat in the sidecar attached to the machine, and had the appearance of anioving it, mentally voicing the opinion that are driver that the intest candiloying it, mentally voicing the opinion that as a driver that the latest candidate was a real "Diamond."

An automobile swung out of the drive-way as Diamond approached it, and re-larding the speed of the motorcycle. Diaond permitted the automobile to game e highway before he "stepped on it" gain momentum on the incline of the iriveway. The momentum developed right enough, and l'amond lost control of the machine, which headed foremost for the steepest section of the embankment opposite Hungerford street, and down into the Park river. In less han a twinkling the machine was in the solution of the stream and turned turtle, the wheels still grinding merrily and giving mute evidence that the manufacturer day when struck by an automobile, was least had developed a good motor.

Inspector Williams did not stay to see whether his client could make a rood stop on a steep embankment. He dived from the sidecar and landed amid-ships on the embankment, while Diamond did a wrestling stunt that brought his shoulder to the greensward and the rolled to the river edge. A con. a respect to the steep and several kids assured Williams and Diamond that they were still skin whole, while the owner of the motorcycle, who chanced to be other than Diamond, from a position on the wadnut embankment of the river wondered how he could get the pesky thing out of the Rosedale and East Killingly, putting his siderable gain in membership has been and account of the pesky thing out of the rock of the settle state. Contrast the cheerful, happy weman, with head erent the glow of health on her cheeks, the clastic step and bubbling enthusiasm as she goes about her daily tasks, with the woman who suffers from backsche, headaches, dragging-down pains, nervousness and despondency. Such conditions are undoubtedly caused by woman's allments which will yield to Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, which for many, many years has been restoring weak, ailing women to health and strength. Every woman who suffers in this way owe it to herself to at least give it a trial.
